Accused Slayer Of Gem Dealer

Scorns Lawyer and Is Said

Theft of Taxi Laid to 3

5 Seized in Alleged Opium Den: 2 More Suspects in Capitol Theater Robbery Caldwell Funeral

Arlie Westling, of 148 West Fortysixth Street, who is accused of shooting and killing Carl Mollar, an elderly ewel dealer of 1668 Nelson Avenue, the Brenx, and of wounding Mrs. Mellar in n attempted hold-up Saturday, was erraigned before Magistrate Charles E. imms in Morrisania court and held without bail for examination Decem-

Detective Herman Meyer, of Captain Andrew Wines's staff, said that just before going to court yesterday Westling statement to him reiterating his

What do I want with a lawver? I have no defense to offer," Westling is quoted as saying. In court he declared control of the bottleggers will be seen as a surpresse of the said that he went to Mollar's home and with the intention of robbing the said with the intention of robbing the said. According to the police, he said and he did not carry out his intention.

Church, Ocean and Dithias available at Canton, St. Lawrence County, where Mr. Caldwell's parents are buried.

County, where Mr. Caldwell's parents are buried.

District Attorney Harry E. Lewis, who is to become a Supreme Court justice January 1, visited Mr. Caldwell's residence yesterday. With him were several members of his staff. He said that the District Attorney's office would be closed Tuesday during the funeral and that he and all members of the staff would attend.

Recotleggers Take Day Off

"As far as I am concerned," he said.
"I believe most of the bootleggers will take Christmas cif. I know one thing, and that is that I am not going to bother any bootleggers while I am eating my Christmas dinner if I can help it."

The police were watching yesterday for violations of a flagrant nature, but were not inclined to molest any citizen who might be enjoying the heliday in any orderly manner. There was liquid

Patrolmen McCluney and Marseljua, if the East Thirty-fifth Street police dation, were attracted yesterday morning by shouts for help, and, hurrying of Thirty-third Street and First Ay-

Second Avenue.

ive men were arrested yesterday ruing at 155 East Seventeenth eet According to the police they eet According in a room redolent opium smoke. An opium pipe and ne pen-yen are said to have been nd, slong with three automatic pisto the detectives of the East Twen-

A man was arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Bernard Douras, in West Side Court, and held in $5,000 bail on a charge of hurgiary. Smith was arrested early yesterday morning in the home of Daniel Daly, 44 West Seventy-sixth Street by Delective Hugh McGovern, of the West Sixty-eighth Street police station. According to McGovern Smith had a violin valued at $500, an expen-

Weather Report

Sin rises. 7:18 p. m. Sun sets. . . 4:38 p. m. Moon rises 4:38 s. m. Moon sets. 2:35 p. m.

Local Forecast. Fair to-day and to-morrow: moderate northerly winds, be-soming southerly by to-morrow.

Local Official Record.—The following official record from the Weather Bureau thows temperatures during the last wenty-four hours in comparison with the corresponding date of last year:

Highest temperature yesterday, 3s de-drees (at midnight), lowest, 24 degrees, at 10 a. m.), average, 31 degrees, aver-age same date last year, 25 degrees; aver-age same date for thirty-three years, 33

Humidity 10. m.,... 74/8 p. m.... 78

Barometer Readings a. m. 30.25(1 p. m., 30.27)8 p. m., 39.33

General Weather Conditions

WASHINGTON, Dec. 28.—Pressure was high to-day over virtually all sections east of the Rocky Mountains, while a disturbance of marked intensity and wide extent moved inland over northern California, attended by general precipitation west of the Hocky Mountains and gales along the northern California coast. San Francisco reporting a maximum wind velocity of sixty miles an hour from the southwest. Hain has fallen also within the last twenty-four hours in the middle Atlantic south Atlantic and east Guil states, rain and snow in southern New England and sporthern New York and local snows in the southern lake region. However, there was no precipitation of consequence to-day east of the Rocky Mountains, excepting in the Carolinas and in southern Virginia.

The temperature was considerably lower to-day in the Atlantic and east Guil states, accept the Florida Feninsula, while there was a reaction to higher temperature in the upper Mississiphi Valley and the plantstates. Low temperatures continued in the Far Northwest.

Far Northwest.

Fandications are for generally fair weather, but with considerable cloudiness Monday and Tuesday, in the states east of the Hississippi River. The temperature will mothern New York, the lake region and the Florida Feninsula during east of the Mississiph River, except in the upper lake region and the Florida Feninsula during are displayed on the California coast.

Forecast by Districts—Eastern New York General Weather Conditions

Porceast by Disiriets—Bastern New York of Eastern Bennsylvania, Generally fair onder and Tuesday warmer Tuesday and north and central portions Montays. and Tuesday; rising temperature western Pennsylvania and Western New Vestern Pennsylvania and Western New Verke-Cloudy Monday and Tuesday, with slowly rising temperature. New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland— Teir Monday and Tuesday; warmer Tues-tay.

Of Gem Dealer
Mute in Court

Mute in Court

Cafe Hold-Up Suspects Held

Two men suspected of having been involved in the hold-up last Saturday night in the cafe of James Bonabino were held without hall yesterday by Magistrate Jesse Silberman in Tombs court for examination to-day. They said they were William Collins, of 120 Christopher Street, and James Murray, of 661 Washington Street.

In addition to three men awaiting examination to-day in connection with the robbery of the Capitol Theater on December 18, two negroes were arraigned yesterday before Magistrate Douras in West Side court and were held in $2,500 bail each.

The men held are Wilbert Gilard, of 131 West Fifty-third Street, and James Phillips, of 349 West Fifty-third Street.

Edward Bowes, manager of the theater, is the complainant.

Call U. E.

Cafe Hold-Up Suspects Held

Two men suspected of having been involved in the hold-up last Saturday night in the cafe of James Bonabino West Problems of 120 Bootleggers

Bootleggers

Prohibition Agents Let Situation Take Care of Itself on Christmas, but There Is Little Drunkenness belief in $2,500 bail each.

The men held are Wilbert Gilard, of 131 West Fifty-third Street, and James Phillips, of 349 West Fifty-third Street.

Edward Bowes, manager of the theater, is the complainant. Cafe Hold-Up Suspects Held

To-morrow: Lewis

To-morrow; Lewis
To Close His Office

District Attorney's Staff to Attend Services for Brooklyn Man Who Killed
Self on Eve of Promotion

Funeral services for Everett Caldwell,
First Assistant District Attorney of Kings County, who ended his life in the bedroom of his home, at 1409 Dean Street, Brooklyn, Saturday evening, will be held at his residence at 2 o'clock Tuesday atternoon. The services will be conducted by the Rev. Eugene A.
Bartlett, of All Souls' Universalist Church, Ocean and Ditmas avenues. Interment will be at Canton, St. Lawrence County, where Mr. Caldwell's parents are burled.

Bootleggers, transporters of illicit liquor, rum smugglers and any other violators of the Volstead law who chose to work yesterday had the field all to the majority of the cases by prohibition or customs agents. The reason was that most of the agents had the day off. They were working in a way, but had been advised by Director Ralph
A. Day and Revenue Chief Hugh McQuillan to use discretion and not to make any arrests that were not necessary.

The chief of the revenue agents, Hugh McQuillan, said that he did not believe in making Christmas miserable, even for bootleggers. He intimated that a day's inactivity while his men enjoyed a good Christmas dinner and a cheerful holiday might serve to make them better peace officers when they came back to work.

Bootleggers, transporters of illicit liquor, rum smugglers and any other
violators of the Volstead law who chose
to work yesterday had the field all to
the majority of the cases by prohibition or customs agents. The reason was that most of the agents had the day off. They were working in a way,
but had been advised by Director Ralph
A. Day and Revenue Chief Hugh McQuillan to use discretion and not to make any arrests that were not necessary.

The chief of the revenue agents, Hugh McQuillan, said that he did not believe
in making Christmas miserable, even
for bootleggers. He intimated that a day's inactivity while his men enjoyed a good Christmas dinner and a c hat he did not carry out his intention is no because Molar told him he would have a wider selection of jewelry the following day.

Knew Theatrical Spenders

The police learned that Westling sought the sequentiannee of stage folks and believe that it was in the endeavor to keep up appearances in the company of those who were lavish in their expenditures that he hit upon the plan of rebbery.

In all probability the case against Westling will be presented to the Bronx Grand Jury before his hearing on Wednesday. Mrs. Mellar, who is in Serious condition.

Two men were arrested resterday by all of Mr. Caldwell's friends that his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused by overwork. Mr. Caldwell was compelled several weeks ago to take a rest, but when he returned to his office become places. Some of this liquid cheer had been saved and carefully gnarded in cellars since before prohibition. Most of the drinking was due to a nervous breakdown caused by overwork. Mr. Caldwell was compelled several weeks ago to take a rest, but when he returned to his office hearth his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused by overwork. Mr. Caldwell was compelled several weeks ago to take a rest, but when he returned to his office hearth his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused by overwork. Mr. Caldwell was compelled several weeks ago to take a rest, but when he returned to his office hearth his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused by overwork. Mr. Caldwell was compelled several weeks ago to take a rest, but when he returned to his office hearth his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused by overwork as a rest, but when he returned to his office hearth his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused that his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused that his act was due to a nervous breakdown caused the a rest, but when he returned to his office hearth his pour in some places. Some of this liquid cheer had been saved and carefully guarded in cellars since before prohibition. Most of the drinking was defered in cellars since charge of his duties as District Attorney of the site of his duties as District Attorney. It don't hesitate in saying that his appointment," Mr. Holmes said, "worried him a great deal. He asked me what he should do, and I told him that as far as our law partnership was concerned it would make no difference what the appointment, but he did not want to go back on his friends who had helped him to win it. He told me that he frankly hoped that some one else would obtain the place."

There Heid for Assault

The Predicted Hossening of a wave of wood alcohol, which had caused United States district attorneys and others much to have the part was commendered. The predict of lossening of a wave of wood alcohol, which had caused United States district attorneys are deal. The predict of lossening of a wave of wood alcohol, which had caused United States district attorneys are deal. The predict

Four Killed, One Hurt, In Kentucky Gun Fight

mote part of the county and particu-lars are unavailable.

Dry Squad Has

the Few "Revenooers" Out Find Little to Offend

Bootleggers, transporters of illicit

Truck of Wine Seized When

Tire Goes Flat in Zion City In Kentucky Gun Fight

BARBOURVILLE, Ky., Dec. 25.—
Four men are reported killed and one wounded in a gun fight at Elys, Know County, late ro-day. The dead, according to telephone reports, are Russ Baker, chief of police of Barbourville; Jim Bodkins and his son. Chick Bodkins, of Elys. Another Bodkins is said to be severely wounded.

The scene of the shooting is in a remote part of the county and particulars are unowaitable.

sound, slong with three automatic pistols. The detectives of the East Twenty-second Street police station are reticent concerning the arrests, saying only that the prisoners fit the description of men wanted for "some robbery or other."

BENTON, Ills., Dec. 25.—Sherman Hart, forty-six years old, and Jack Galbraith, twenty-one, are dead as the result of a pistol duel between Hart and Delas Plaster upon the streets of Thompsonville last night. Galibraith being struck by a stray bullet. Hart killed Green Smothers near Thompson-ville, April 10, 1921, but was acquitted.

Bedtime Stories

Old Man Coyote Has an Empty Stomach

By Thornton W. Burgess

An empty stomach sharpens wit, And courage grows because of it. -Old Man Coyote.

Broadway at Ninth, New York Telephone, 4700 Stuyvesant Store hours 9 to 5:30

Store Closed All Day Today

5.30 closing resumed Tuesday

All the Great World Forces producing art textiles and fabrics quote this store as a foremost representative of the

Americanism of Storekeeping

and our favorable relations with them in this country and abroad enable us to be constantly supplied with the best merchandise as rapidly as it comes out.

We are pleased to maintain the kindly interest of many years with the makers of trustworthy articles and fabrics.

The best of everything lasts so much longer and always looks good.

December 26, 1921.

The Munnater

Notice MARCEL DUPRE

Organist at Notre Dame Cathedral, Paris,

CHARLES M. COURBOIN formerly of Antwerp Cathedral

will give a

Gala Organ Concert

on the New Concert Organ in the Wanamaker Auditorium

Tuesday evening, Dec. 27 at 8:30 o'clock

The many admirers of these extraordinary artists nity to hear them on the same programme. In response to the demand we have arranged for extra chairs in addition to the usual seats. Cards of admission—free—may be obtained from 10 A. M. until 5:30 P. M. on Tuesday at the Concert Bureau. Auditorium, First Gallery, New Building, John Wanamaker, New York.

Note: No one will be admitted in the evening without admission card.

A Forewell Organ Recital by MARCEL DUPRE

Wednesday afternoon Dec. 28, at 2:30 o'clock in the Auditorium. Cards of admission—free—for this last recital of the famous virtuoso may be obtained at the Auditorium on the day

No seats will be reserved for

First Gallery, New Building.

Gay Frocks for holiday parties

Sizes 6 to 16 years

Honors are equally divided between simplicity of line and the lovely materials which fashion these fascinating frocks - each one a charming copy of a chic French model.

Frocks of taffeta, crope satin, Georgette crepe and Canton crepe combined with chiffon velvet reveal long waists.

Adorable frocks of Georgette crepe combined with taffeta and crepe de chine boast of short waists.

In dainty frocks of creps de chine, waists do not appear at Prettily designed sleeves are invariably short. The exquisite trimming details though of great simplicity are very effective. Ciel blue, peach, turquoise, maize, apricot, peacock pink, periwinkle blue, orchid, rose and coral, $16.50 to $39.50.

Third floor, Old Building.

LYTEE Perfumes

We first ordered LY-TEE perfumes and preparations because a customer of ours who had just returned from Paris, said that she preferred them to anything she had found in this coun-

The first shipment went immediately. Now the second has arrived. Extract, $10.50 and Eau d'Lys, $9.25. Face cream, $4.25. Face powder, $4.25. Eau de cologne, $6.25. Main floor, Old Building.

New shipment of Sweaters from Fair Isle IN THE ENGLISH SHOP

Sweaters, slip-on style......$48.50 Sweaters and Skating Caps.....$58.50

These are the sweaters with the hieroglyphics which have such an interesting origin—the smart sweaters that will be in great demand for the southern wardrobe as well as for winter sports.

The quaint fisher folk of Fair Isle knit them by hand of wool that they had spun and dyed themselves, and as they work only in the winter, when the fishing industry is dull, the output is limited and difficult to obtain. Second Floor, Old Building

150 Dinner Sets made up from open stock patterns at specially low prices Eighteen patterns to choose from French china, American semi-porcelain, English semiporcelain, Nippon china. The above row of plates offer a few examples of the patterns. 32-piece or 52-piece sets which, being made up from open stock patterns, may be added to at any time—at regular prices, of course. 32-piece sets at $10.50 to $40 52-piece sets at $22.50 to $85 This is an opportunity to invest money that came to you for Christmas-an investment that will pay in the attractiveness that it will bring to your table. Second Gallery, New Building.

Tomorrow --- Tuesday --- a Sale which might be called A PRESENTATION OF BEAUTIFUL FASHIONS

Women's Dresses

-A real opportunity

Dresses at $19.50

Were $29.50 to $39.50-and more Dresses at $39.50

Were $55 to $62.50

Dresses at $68 Were $89.50 to $97.50

> Dresses at $89.50 Were $145 to $197

> > Dresses at $135 Were $225 to $265

Dresses at $195

Were $275 to $375

Practically every smart fashion decreed by Paris this season will be found in this Sale.

We have never had a finer collection of dresses than that assembled in our Salons for the Winter season of 1921-22. And the dresses in this Sale are part of that collection.

Included are many individual models.

-exquisite copies of evening gowns by the CAL-LOT SOEURS,

-CHERUIT'S Dance frock with pantaloons, the sensation of Paris.

-gowns that glitter under the lights of night, -evening gowns of soft silk crepes in fuchsia and the other beautiful colors chosen by the Parisian

-lace evening gowns-afternoon frocks of duretyn and kasha, luxuriously trimmed with furs.

-- simple frocks of soft silks and velvets, for day time.

None will be sent C. O. D. None returnable. The Sale will be held in The Women's Fashion Salons, on the Second Floor of the Stewart Building-Tuesday morning.

Lovely Scarfs for evening wear

From France

have come very attractive scarfs of fine silk net beautifully beaded or spangled.

French blue, sapphire blue, American Beauty, white, black, gold and sil-$15—similar scarfs were $20 to $28 in our own stocks.

Also imported Spanish and Brussels lace scarfs in a variety of exquisite hand-run floral designs. Black and white. $12 to $25.

Main Floor, Old Building

Disposal of Short Lengths of Dress Goods, Tuesday at Half Price Imported and domestic fabrics included

Woolens and Velveteens, $1.85 to $5.50 yd. Coatings and Dress Fabrics

Bolivia cloth, duvetyn, broadcloth, plain tricotine, Poiret twill, fine serges, Scotch homespuns, tweeds and heather mixtures, plaid, check and striped skirtings and cloths. Velveteen in several widths. All the colors of this season, and the new spring shades.

Cotton Dress Lengths, 15c, 25c, 50c yd.

Zephyr gingham, chambray, plain and printed voiles, organdies, Irish dimity, dotted Swiss, dress linen, madras shirting, sateen, as well as silk and cotton materials. The colorings of this large collection are delightful.

Dress Goods Salons, First Floor, Old Building